PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

In 1948, a few Jewish families in Pullman began to organize Jewish activities. Over the years, there has been a steady increase in the number of Jewish students at WSU and UI, the size of our mailing list, the number of dues-paying members, and the energy of the JCP. With new and enthusiastic members and volunteers, we have continued to sponsor a variety of social events, religious services, and educational activities.

The JCP Directors are Lea Wherland, Patrick Carter, Larry Fox, Robert Rosenman, Alison Casey and Myron Schreck. But our viability depends on the many people who volunteer to plan, organize, set up, clean up, and attend to details. Everyone does their part, and we appreciate it. Our Community Passover Seder in April was successful due to the efforts of Aviva Suchow, Harris Bershatsky, Lea Wherland, and many others. So once again, we ask you to continue to support the JCP with your dues and your energy. Let us know if there are activities that you would like the JCP to sponsor. Judaism on the Palouse is what we make of it. Shana Tova.
